

INDIA to USA

Country: USA (EWR/SFO/JFK/ ORD/IAD)

Entry of Citizens - Permitted

Entry of Non- Citizens:

There is no restriction for Indian Passport holders who are holding valid visas for US. Passengers who have transited or have been in certain countries in the past 14 days are not allowed to enter the USA. For details on above and latest updates please refer to <https://www.iatatravelcentre.com/international-travel-document-news/1580226297.htm> Indian citizens seeking to travel on outbound Air India flights to the US, on the basis of their

F1 visas, for higher studies may NOT be able to Travel USA on the current Air India repatriation flights under Mission Vande Bharat IF:

1. Your F or M category visa has less than 6 months validity from the date of your planned departure
2. You are a new admission case, and have not as yet joined your educational institution before the COVID-19 outbreak.

(Explanation: New admittees for the 2020 Fall term in US educational institutions are advised to consider deferring travel to the US to a date closer to the opening date of their institution, subject to local public health conditions.)

3. In the case of continuing students, who are making normal progress in their course of study, and may have left the US to visit India before India's Lockdown commenced, MUST check with their Designated School Officials to confirm the school's operational status. Alternatively, they may obtain guidance on the School's policy for foreign students returning to the US. In such cases, students MAY ONLY attempt to travel to the US with written documentary confirmation that the School is open. Without such documentation, even if continuing students have valid F or M visas, they may not be permitted to board an outbound flight.

(Explanation: This is necessary. As some schools may not currently allow returning students to return to campus for an extended period of time)

Note: However, all outbound passengers are advised to recheck their eligibility for travel to the specific country by referring to the conditions on the respective country's regulatory website.
